Moving in the Right Direction

Our success is defined by our agents' success.

Independence means:

- Play by your own rules
- Make your own choices
- Success limited only by your desire
- Freedom from outside influence

One size does not fit all

All agencies are not the same. Westcor provides a unique approach to you as an agent based on your situation. We take a special interest in you as a customer to cultivate a mutually beneficial relationship.

Our efforts go beyond the contracts with our agents. We develop strong relationships with our customers that encourage a complete understanding of individual business positions and objectives. This knowledge allows us to individualize support services that meet your needs.

A team approach

Your Westcor team encompasses individuals who share your entrepreneurial spirit, vision and culture. "Your Success is Our Success" is the Westcor standard. We are committed to the support and development of the individual title agent.

Westcor employees are professionals identified by their talent and experience with deep industry understanding. This approach assures you will receive value-added agency resources with optimal performance to serve your business. Since 1993, our team strives to offer the highest quality of service and industry intelligence to encourage your success.

A company on the move

Westcor is aggressively expanding its state licensing in order to better serve you. As a title insurance underwriter, we work closely with regulatory authorities in every state and maintain substantial financial reserves. Demotech, a national rating agency, rates Westcor A' (Prime) Unsurpassed, one of the highest ratings for any underwriter. As part of our commitment to your support and growth, we work diligently to keep you informed of governmental and regulatory issues that may affect your businesses.
